The committee has practically completed its work, although it will be necessary to return after the beginning of the year to bring the report up to December 31.

The committee found the affairs of the year to bring the report up to December 31.

The committee found the affairs of the order in excellent condition. Its growth has been prenomenal, and the losses from death are surprisingly small, Probably along with the report will be presented some actuarial statements, including recommendations as to adjustments regarding future business, so as to protect the interests of all future policy-holders.

Acting on the recommendation of the examiners, the directors of the order have determined to reduce the large amount held in "onks on small interest, and invest at least $1,000,000 in securities to be approved by insurance officials. This will finally result in a reduction of the assessments on policy-holders. WANTED, TO BUY FOR CASH, HOUSE-hold goods in any quantity. Ruling of Judges as to Qualifications for Voting in Election in Lynchburg. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., December 6.—Concerning the question raised here recently as to the constitutionality of the registration in Lynchburg, in the past twelve months in which it is admitted that practically all of the new voters were registered without being required to make written application for registration, more than half of the thirty-two judges who will act in the local option election Friday met this afternoon and decided to permit all persons qualified for the November election to participate in Friday's contest. The judges held that it was impossible for them, on election day, to go back to the registration books, as wholesale challenging would prevent many from voting. Cabinet

Sovernor Predicts Remarkable Change

Governor Predicts Remarkable Change in Virginia.

The Governor has accepted an invitation to address the Augusta County Boys' Corn Club at Staunton on Saturday of this week. He is much interested in this work.

A peculiar result of this movement for advanced methods of agriculture" said the Governor, "and of the development of scientific procedure by boys on farms, will be that the poorest portions of Virginia will become the best. In the rich sections of the Valley of Virginia and of the Southwest the people are not particularly interested in the movement, for their lands are already splendidly productive. On the othor hand, in the sections where the agricultural yield is poor the farmers are taking held, and before many years the localities which are now rich will become second to those which are now looked down upon as unproductive."

wholesale challengs would precent many from voting.

This will eliminate challenges from both sides of voters registered this year, as it is held that it will be legal for both sides to make a blanke challenge, which would be the ground for a contest should one be desired after the election.
